The gulf stream exists very largely in school geographies. It is my can-did belief that not one captain in a thousand can tell when he is in it without consulting his charts. All the wonderful things that we learned about in school, simmer down a liltle about in school, simmer down a little when we actually see them. That there is such a thing as the gulf stream, and that it has great influence upon the climate of the land adjacent to it, no one can doubt, but it is not a great river of warm water, as they used to teach us. I have been on it for three days in a blinding snow storm, with the weather so cold it would freeze your nose if you poked it out of the cabin door. It is a trifle warmer than the rest of the ocean, and it is full of floating seaocean, and it is full of floating sea-weed, and the weed is no good, and that's about the amount of the gulf stream. In winter there is not heat enough to melt a cake of ice, and in summer it's about as warm as board ing house coffee. -Ex.

INDEPENDENCE, Or., Nov. 30.-Fire INDEPENDENCE, Or., Nov. 30.—Fire broke out at 9 o'clock this morning in the saloon building occupied by C. Mayhew, on the east side of Main street, and the building was soon wrapped in flames, which spread to adjoining buildings, destroying the millinery store owned by Mrs. F. Winnull, W. P. Conoway's hardware store, Butler's opera house, and two buildings owned by Mr. George Whittaker, occupied by S. W. Allen, dealer in furniture, and Mr. A. C. Sweet, attorney. Nearly all the con-Sweet, attorney. Nearly all the con-tents of the buildings were saved, but somewhat badly damaged. The West Side office and another building, owned by Mr. Whitaker, were only saved after the untiring efforts of the department, assisted by citizens. Considerable damage was done in moving goods out of the buildings on the west side of the street, which did not take fire. The loss is roughly esti-mated at about $10,000. No insurance. It is not known how the fire originated.

A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding' Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams (an Indian Remedy,) called Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment. used scores of Pile Cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. William's Indian Ointment.

Hon. Judge W. P. Coons, Maysville, Ky., says: "I have suffered for years with itching piles, and have used many remedies. I have used Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment and been cured, while every other remedy has cured while every other remedy has failed."
